

How To Make $10.000 Monthly From Affiliate Marketing? Real-time experiment!

Hi! My name is Alex.

I live in Ukraine. Not the safest place to live in, right? But fortunately, there are no flying rockets in my city.

I have a beautiful wife (she's Russian, by the way, and two amazing kids). We don't care about politics, we are happy, inspired and excited! Here we are:

And I want to invite you to my amazing journey, my real-time exciting experiment!

In this short report I will share with you my strategy on how I'm going to start making $10.000 from my blog. Monthly. Nothing to buy, no credit card is required. Just keep reading and get inspired!

Ready? Let's get started!

Introduction

Blogs, blogs, blogs.

They are everywhere. It takes less than five minutes to start a blog.

Do you have your own blog? Chances are, you do.

Are you making full-time living from your blog? Chances are, you're not. Wanna fix it?

Let's do it together!

Here is one of my projects: <http://alexjuly.com> – it's a blog about making money online, affiliate marketing, blogging, self-development and my life. This is my inspired face, by the way:

I

enjoy wearing bright clothes. This makes me happy and inspired. And I recommend that you get rid of your black t-shirts, gray jackets and faded shirts as soon as possible.

So, how exactly am I going to make $10.000 from one single blog?

I have a big deal of experience in making money – made for AdSense websites, developing forum communities, I have a few blogs in my first language which is... Russian (Actually, my first language is Ukrainian, but it is not popular, so we use Russian to communicate with each others).

So, why not to create a blog, and why not to start sharing my experience? And I did it! I started my own blog in English (yeah, it's not my first language, and I suck a little bit at English, that's true, but who cares? You're here not to learn grammar, but to learn how to make money, right?)

And here is the plan:

Step 1: Decide exactly what I want

I want to make $10.000 monthly from my blog...

WRONG!!!!

Clarity – I lack clarity!!!

Once more:

Step 1: Decide exactly what I want – set goals, set the deadline.

Ok, let's try once more:

I want to make $10.000 monthly starting from December, 2016th from my blog which is <http://alexjuly.com> by sharing my experience, by serving my visitors, by helping them to start and maintain their successful online businesses.

Nice!

Step 2: Check whether it's a realistic goal

Oh, come on! There are hundreds and even thousands of bloggers making more than $10.000 dollars monthly. Need proofs?

SmartPassiveIncome.com: $176,649

ShoutMeLoud.com: $21,472

MatthewWoodward.co.uk: $23,548

JustAGirlAndHerBlog.com: $31,292 and so on...

So, is it possible? YES, IT IS! IT'S A REAL GOAL.

Step 2: Believe that it is possible

I believe, I DO BELIEVE.

Not only do I believe, but also I read a lot of books on self-development and motivation, and I understand that what others have done, I can do as well.

They are making tens of thousands of dollars from their blogs, I will be making $10.000 from my blog. (Yes, that's true, I have a limiting belief)

Step 3: Visualize

Oh, I believe in the power of visualization. I have a beautiful wife, two kids, I live in a four-room apartment, this is what I attracted in my life.

How do I visualize?

Here is my magic check. I downloaded in here after watching “The Secret” movie:

(My real name is a real jawbreaker. Alex July is my pseudonym. But I have a check with my real name in my sofa).

Step 4: Stop thinking and start doing!

Want-wait-wait!

What do you mean, start doing?

Not only do I want to make money, but my goal is to help other people. So, probably, more important is to decided how exactly I can help other people, right? RIGHT!
Let's do that!

This is the rule of success:

Gather a group of people, find their problems and provide solutions to their problems, you'll make money.

Let me ask you a serious question. Why are you reading this book? 'cause you wanna make money, right? Did you buy those get-rich-quick schemes? Did you buy that traffic generation software, that become-rich-overnight method? Did you succeed?

Chances are, you have an experience in buying that crap.

A group of people from the rule of success is people who are willing to make money online, and who understand that the hard work is required. They heard something about blogging, affiliate marketing, but they don't understand how to get started, how to scale their businesses.

Their problems are lack of knowledge and understanding on how to make money.

Provide solutions to their problems...

What could be better than sharing my thoughts and the results of my experiments?
Live!

You wanna buy traffic, but you're not sure whether you should invest your money into it? - I'll do that, I'll share with you the results!

Blog commenting – is it good for SEO and for traffic? You don't want to lose your time – I have enough time, and I will answer this question.

Forum marketing – does it work? - I will try, and I will share the results!

Simple as that: I have a blog, it's a brand new project, making NO MONEY, and I'm planning to make $10.000 in December, 2016 and to share with you all my steps!

Are you willing to make $10.000 in December? If yes, you're in the same boat with me!

Observe and implement my steps and strategies!

I have nothing to sell you, it's free!

So, let's rewrite step 4:

Step 4: Determine whether your actions have a true meaning and purpose behind them.

I've done it, and I truly believe, my experience will be useful for you!

Step 5: Create the exact plan!

And here it is.

Since I truly believe that the best way to make money online is affiliate marketing through blogging, I will be promoting useful stuff for bloggers and marketers.

I am a religious person, and I believe I'm responsible for everything I'm saying, writing and promoting.

So here are the offers that will help me to make $10.000 monthly or $333 daily:

Wealthy Affiliate,

BlueHost,

Aweber,

Udimi,

NameCheap

and maybe some others...

How exactly does it work?

Wealthy Affiliate – a big friendly community for marketers, obviously it is the best solution for beginners who are willing to make money from affiliate marketing, and be held by the hand like a little girl until they see profit. It's free to join, but they offer a premium membership as well:

I can earn $100+ per premium signup.
COOOOOOOOOOL!!!

In order to make $10.000 I have to refer 100 premium members per month, right? Yeah, you're right, Alex!

But, let's say, I will be able to refer only 1 premium member daily. This will be bringing $100 in my pocket every single day.

Why not to try? Why not to promote this program, if I truly believe that it is a good choice for beginners and for those you need help?

Their live chat is really “Live Chat” and you can literally get answers to any questions you have in minutes!

Lass uns weitergehen! Yes, I can speak German a little bit. It means “Let's move on!”

Bluehost – the best web hosting for your website. I'm personally using Bluehost, and I'm happy with them.

Everyone promotes it. Most of top bloggers promote Bluehost. Am I worst?

“By driving customers to sign up at Bluehost, you will receive $65.00 per referral.

What could be better than offering a great service to those that visit your web site, and making a healthy sum on the side for doing so?

You send them our way, we'll do the rest.”

Oh, yes, what could be better?

Let's say, I'll be capable of inspiring two cool guys daily to start a blog or to buy web hosting for their projects.

$65 * 2 = $130 in my pocket. (If you think, it's unreal, don't forget that Pat Flyn from SmartPassiveIncome.Com made $52,350 in February, 2016 by promoting Bluehost. That means that he's referring 30 customers every day – 15 times more than I'm planning to refer).

(By the way, in order to be in the same boat with me you have to have a blog, if you are a total newbie, here is the guide on how to get started, and here is my video on how to choose the best niche for your blog.

So, here is my future daily stats:

$100 from Wealthy Affiliate + $130 from Bluehost = $260 daily.

But my goal is $333 daily?

How to make the remaining 73$?

There are a lot of other useful products to promote.

For example, Aweber. The money is in the list, have you heard about that? Building relationships with your subscribers can be easy with autoresponder messages. Yes, I'm personally using AWeber, and yes, I'm happy with its services!

And you're reading this book, because AWeber helped me to deliver it to you.

How much do they pay for recurring customers?

“You refer Joe to us, and he signs up at $19.00 per month. Each month Joe uses AWeber, you'll earn $5.70.

After a year, you've made $68.40. After 2 years, $136.80. 3 years? $205.20.

And so on as long as Joe continues to use his account.

And that's just one account!»

Wow! Amazing! It's a bit difficult to do the math. It's a true long-term strategy!

Another example:

The more traffic, the more money, right?

Are there free traffic sources? Yes? Really?
WRONG! “Free” requires your time and efforts. Yes, I will be using “free” traffic sources like YouTube, Twitter, blog commenting and so on, but...

I will be buying traffic. I truly believe that Udimi is the best solo ads provider. Not Udemy, but Udimi.

Don't you know what solo ads are? I'll explain you later, in my blogposts. Simply put, you pay money and get visitors to your landing page.

I pay $100 – I get 200-250 visitors.

Why not to recommend this service to my visitors, if I'm personally using it? Here are the details:

“How Much Will I Get
You will get 15% from all solo sales and 50% from all Prime users.

Both commission are recurring and lifetime.

Sample Calculation

Your refer 10 Prime members ($30/mo)
and 10 buyers, who spend $250/mo

15% from solo buyers = $0.15 * 10 * $250$
= $375

50% from Prime members = $0.50 * 10 *$
$30 = $150

You will get $525 Per Month»

Wow, cool!

Maybe, I will add Google Ads to my blog,
maybe, I will be capable of creating my own product, and you, guys, YOU will be promoting it as affiliates? Who knows?!

I don't think, there is a need of meticulous planning and in depth analysis.

I have a YouTube channel, here it is – go and subscribe. I'm planning on creating a weekly show for bloggers and affiliate marketers, where I'll be sharing my experience and learning from your tips. This is why I appreciate your comments, suggestions and feedback.

Step 6:

I may be wrong, but I did the math, and I realized that in order to be making ten thousand dollars every single month I have to...

- 1) Provide valuable information, write at least three times a week.
- 2) Build a list of 10,000 highly targeted e-mail subscribers and e-mail them at least three times a week.
- 3) Get at least 1,000 highly targeted visitors to my blog every day.

I don't want to dive into this math, but I believe it will work. It works for others, it will work for me!

So, as you understand I'm not that guy, who's going to promote, promote and promote. Let's say, I write a blogpost on how to buy cheap traffic from “Company N”, and I'm sharing my experience. I send you an e-mail with the link, you click, and now you are reading my blogpost. If you are interested in implementing my strategy – you create an account, buy traffic, and I get my commission.

Simple as that. You're happy, I'm happy, everyone is happy!

Is it real? YES, IT IS!

I BELIEVE, I KNOW! I WILL ACHIEVE MY GOAL.

By serving you, by sharing my experience in making money niche, by learning from other bloggers, by interviewing them, by promoting healthy living, by helping you to get up at 5.00 a.m. Yeah, I get up at 5.00 a.m.

Don't you believe me? This is what you've likely missed today:

Now it is 8:35 a.m., and I made this photo a few hours ago, when I started writing this book.

And now I completed writing it.

Here I am celebrating this fact drinking green smoothie.

Everything is possible if you believe!

P.S. If you wanna comment my plan, go here and leave the comment. If you think, I'm a loser, go here and leave the comment.

I do appreciate your suggestions!

P.P.S. I wish you never know what war is like...
